The "Bleues" team will have to intensify especially if they play Friday against the USA, and / or Spain anyway to hope to reach the semifinal and dream of the final in their host country.-----

After this equalization, the two teams were observed and it was not until the extension for the game to get carried away. Just before the break, the player Griedge Mbock saves the Blue on her line by preventing the powerful shot of the Brazilian player Debinha who almost scored in the nets of French goalkeeper Sara Mohaddi. A few minutes later, in the 107th minute) before the French captain, Amandine Henry brings the blow of bitch by scoring the second goal, allowing the Blue to qualify for the quarter-finals, with the help of a good volley. felt on a free kick from the player Amel Majri.-----

The "Bleues" now have five days to recover from a physical point of view and keep on mental that is very solid, before playing and try to reseat their quarter-final on Friday night at the Parc des Princes, facing Spain or face so in the United States.
